

Workers' Compensation Benefit Payments

There are 3 temporary disability benefits available under Workers' Compensation. Each benefit is

Enhanced Industrial Disability Leave (EIDL)

You must be an active member of CalPERS and a member of CSU bargaining unit 8 to be eligible to receive EIDL. If you are determined to be a "qualified injured worker" and you are offered a reasonable vocational rehabilitation plan, you must agree to cooperate and participate in the plan when furnished by the CSU. The EIDL benefit does not apply to presumptive, stress-related disabilities, any psychiatric disabilities, or any physical disability arising from a psychiatric injury.

EIDL Pays you your full net pay for up to 1 year of disability, as long as your absences occur within 1 year of your date of injury. While you are paid EIDL, your normal CalPERS retirement contributions and
